

Private Classes

Benefits

There is a remarkable difference in the technical growth of students who regularly take one-on-one private lessons compared to those who only do group classes. If you are interested in taking private classes here are some of the key benefits.

Reach Mastery Faster

The only way to reduce the amount of time it takes to reach Gracie Jiu-Jitsu mastery is to set very specific training/technical goals based on your current strengths and weaknesses on the mat. Your personal instructor's primary objective will be to help you understand where you are, where you need to be, and exactly what you must do to get there in the least amount of time possible!

Identify & Correct Your Bad Habits

Most people don't know what they don't know. In group lessons, often times the techniques are presented so quickly that it is difficult to retain all the details. In private lessons, your private instructor will have a chance to personally feel your movements and give you instant feedback on what needs fixing.

Discover Your "Game"

Although Gracie Jiu-Jitsu can be learned by anyone, it works differently for everyone. In private lessons, your instructor will go to great lengths to help you discover your "game" or the specific style of jiu-jitsu that best suits you – based on your age, weight, height, flexibility (or lack thereof), etc., so that you can maximize your efficiency on the mat.

Learn Secret Techniques

Each Certified Gracie University Instructor has a unique style that has been refined over many years of teaching and training. In your private lessons you will have the opportunity to learn special techniques that were developed and perfected by your instructor as well as key strategies that are often overlooked, undiscovered, or simply too complex to teach in a group class setting.

Linear Learning

Although the Gracie University group classes require no previous experience, it has been proven that the order in which you learn the techniques greatly affects the time it takes you to master the art. In private lessons, your instructor will present the techniques in the specific order designed to optimize progress.

Flexible Schedule

In general, private lessons can be scheduled at any time, day or night. No matter how crazy your schedule might be, with a personal instructor, you will always be able to get your weekly dose of Gracie Jiu-Jitsu.
